The Family as a Domestic Church

This season is a time when school is out, people take time off from work and families take a break from routine worries and cares.

The Church's liturgy also makes a shift to a long stretch known as Ordinary Time. Together vacation time and Ordinary Time could send the false signal that summer means a break from our spiritual lives as well. How then should a family consciously strive to live as a domestic church regarding both vacation time and Ordinary Time?

For most families leisure time is in short supply. A primary purpose of family leisure time is to be together - to relax, to talk things over, to make plans- to draw closer to one another. One solution for a family that strives to be a domestic church is to spend at least some leisure time in service of others.

At first glance doing such things might seem like the makings of the worst vacation ever. But families who have taken up the challenge of the Gospel often have a different experience. In giving of themselves they experience genuine joy. They forget about their troubles and put their differences in perspective. They build bonds of trust and find the courage to open up to one another.

Especially during this Year of Mercy, we are encouraged to perform the corporal works of mercy in the pattern of the Good Samaritan: feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick and the imprisoned.

Some families visit elderly relatives; join with volunteers in feeding the hungry, helping a neighbor, caring for the environment or inviting those without family to their home for a meal. there are many ways a family can serve. Each family member can help create a list of ways that their family might help the poor, the lonely and those in need.

Far from being a vacation from God, leisure should afford us more time for family prayer. We come to a deeper understanding of the mysteries of Christ's life, death and resurrection through the Mass, Scripture and prayer and by generosity to those in need. In families that strive to be domestic churches, holiness and service are linked.

So, I wish you and your family are having a pleasant and happy summer - but even more so the joy of being a Good Samaritan family.

Excerpted from: Good Samaritan Families, by Archbishop William E. Lori, Columbia, July, 2016.

2016 Backpack for Kids :

Heart of the Hudson Girl Scout Troop 711 is working on the Community Backpack Project again this summer. This is a community service project that provides needy children in the Pine Bush Central School District with backpacks and supplies for the 2016-2017 school year. Last year, with the generosity and support of our community they were able to provide backpacks filled with supplies for children in our school district. This year they hope to continue to help families with children in our school district. You can also donate a gift card to stores such as Staples, Wal-Mart, Rite-Aid or any store that sells school supplies and Troop will happily do the shopping for them. Deadline to bring in supplies or gift cards is August 14th. If you are donating a Gift Card please bring it to the Parish Office. Thank you!

ParishPay is the best means available of supporting our parish. Currently, we have 72 families in our Parish participating and we would like to grow that number. Often times as we're preparing to head out to Mass, we forget to put money or a check in our envelope and decide to postpone giving until the following week when we can give two envelopes. But any delay in tithing could potentially hinder the parish from paying its bills in a timely fashion. With Parish Pay, there is no delay. Even if you can't make the Mass due to inclement weather, Parish Pay ensures that your giving to Infant Saviour will be available to the parish when it's needed most. It's a more consistent way of giving and it enables the parish to better calculate what amount will be coming in which makes things easier on the parish financially. With Parish Pay, tithing may be made through your checking account, savings account or even a credit card every week or month at NO cost to you. It's a secure and confidential way to tithe. Once you've seen the Parish Pay website, you realize just how quick and easy it is to modify your giving or even stop it entirely should you run into some sort of financial difficulty and find yourself unable to give. The quickest way to enroll is by using the website www.parishpay.com, or calling the Parish Office 744-2391 x10. There is also a link to Parish Pay through our own parish website, www.infantsaviour.org. For those of you who worry about what other people will think when you don't put anything in the basket, you can simply deposit an empty envelope in the basket with the words Parish Pay written on the amount. We encourage you to surf out to the Parish Pay website and see just what this way of giving has to offer. Thank you in advance for your continued generosity to Infant Saviour Parish, your spiritual home. May God Bless You All Abundantly.

Dominic Mandile from Troop 1002 is an Eagle Scout Candidate working on his Eagle Scout project. His project is going to be to design and build a flower bed garden around the welcome sign at St. Paul's Church in Bullville. His garden will consist of a stone border and perennial flowers. Dominic will be hosting a pasta dinner here at Infant Saviour Church on August 19th from 5:30PM-8:00PM to help create funds for his Eagle Scout Project. Tickets will be $5.00 for children and $8.00 for adults.

What is "Consoling the Heart of Jesus"?

Father Michael Gaitely, MIC is director of t Evangelization for the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception and formation director of the Marian Missionaries of Divine Mercy. The author of several bestselling books, including 33 Days to Morning Glory, Father Michael lives and works in Stockbridge, Mass., home of the National Shrine of the Divine Mercy.

"Father Michael Gaitely, MIC is to be highly commended for his beautiful book , Consoling the Heart of Jesus. In our busy, hectic, modern world, his approach, based on the time-tested principles of the great St. Ignatius of Loyola, as understood by Father Lanteri, will draw the faithful retreatant ever more deeply into the mystery of the Heart of Christ. By seeking to console the heart of Jesus, "bruised for our iniquities," we in return receive an abundance of graces to overcome our own weaknesses and grow in holiness by laying a sure foundation on the Rock, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." -- Dr. Timothy O'Donnell, STD, Author of Heart of the Redeemer

"In the Consoling the Heart of Jesus, Father Michael makes Ignation spirituality accessible to the rest of us. He has a true gift for moving even small souls closer to Christ. This book is a flexible retreat, a conversation with Christ, and a personal call to greater holiness. The voice of Christ in these pages is one that even this hopelessly distracted wife and mother of eight could hear and respond to . Reading it has been an enormous blessing to me, one that I treasure and will return to often. If you are a small soul too, Jesus is speaking to you right now. Read this book -- all at once or in small increments as our life allows -- and find out what He has to say." Daniel Bean, Editor of Catholic Digest and Faith & Family Live

"This retreat, which is so well fitted into the busy life of the layperson, nonetheless includes all the essential parts of a genuine retreat of the Spiritual Exercises. Although focused on the Divine Mercy, it also includes the insights of St. Ignatius Loyola and St. Louis de Montfort. It is also influenced by the Venerable Father Lanteri, who brings how own intensity and devotion into the Retreat. all of this should make a devout person at home and yet push the person on to higher levels of devotion and spirituality." Father Benedict J. Groeschel, CFR, Author, lecturer, retreat master, and TV Host
